Aloha everyone!

I love the word Aloha and all its meanings. I love the feeling of Aloha and find it a beautiful greeting. I also find it hilarious that it gives people here a sense of right to be late or slow because they are running on Aloha time. Unfortunately, however, I must tell you all Aloha not to say hello or wish you love or friendship but instead to say goodbye.

How did this happen so fast? One minute it was Super Sign Up, and then I blinked and Christmas lights started going up around me. I knew from the day I agreed to be President that it wouldn't be for the whole year, and yet I felt compelled to lead this amazing group of spouses. Two years ago when I came to my first luncheon, I wasn't sure what this group was all about. By the end of the year, I knew I wanted to do more than just come to the luncheons. Last year, I somehow found myself in charge of the luncheons, and by the end of the year, I knew where my path would lead me. I share my story in hopes that one of you will feel the same.

The Hui 'O Na Wahine is an amazing group of spouses. I thank each of you for all your hard work and dedication. I thank you all for friendship and valuable lessons that I have been taught. Keep being you and striving to always do your best for the better of the community.

To the ladies at the thrift store: I am in awe of you each week when I see goals met and shattered. I am amazed at the amount of work that you do and ALWAYS with a smile. I appreciate that you all believe in the mission. We couldn't do what we do without you!

I wish you all a Happy Holiday and all the best, in whatever this crazy military life brings you! A Hui Hou they say on the Island... Until we meet again.

Signing out,
Elisabeth Kadlec
Former President

*Elisabeth,
From all the members of the Hui 'O Na Wahine, thank you for all your hard work, enthusiasm, dedication & kindness. You will be missed!*

While it is with great sadness that we bid our President Elisabeth Kadlec goodbye as she moves on to another duty station, the Hui is once again lucky to have another fantastic volunteer for the job... So let's give a big Hui aloha to our new President Andrea Disque!

Aloha, Hui Ohana!

This is one of my favorite times of the year! The opportunity to reflect on all we have accomplished, all we are thankful for, time spent with friends and family, and most of all the prospects that each new year brings, are often prominent in our thoughts.

I encourage each of you to take a moment to think about your 2017's and ask yourself a few thought-provoking questions. Your responses can help inform your actions, ideas, and attitudes for 2018!

- 1) What is something you did this year that you will remember the rest of your life?
- 2) What is something you accomplished this year that you are proud of?
- 3) What was the most challenging part of the year for you?
- 4) In what areas of your life have you made the biggest improvements this year?
- 5) What are six words that you would use to describe your year?
- 6) Were there any unexpected things that changed your priorities this year?
- 7) What person has made the biggest impact on your life this year?

As an organization, we can also take the time to reflect on our year and all that we have accomplished thus far. As we farewell Elisabeth Kadlec, we can all say that she has contributed greatly to the accomplishments of the Hui and has indeed made a long-lasting impact on the success of our amazing organization. Mahalo nui loa, Elisabeth, for your tireless love of the Hui and for your unending support of our mission of serving and connecting a community of aloha!

Looking ahead to 2018, I am eager to see all of the fantastic things that our organization will continue to do within our community. My best wishes for a memorable holiday season for you and your families and a heartfelt thank you for being a part of the Hui and continuing to help make history happen!

With gratitude,
Andrea

Historical Perspectives:

Looking West

By Andrea Disque

After the Revolutionary War, many soldiers returned to their civilian lives leaving only “fifty-five men at West Point and twenty-five at Fort Pitt” (Alt & Stone, 1991, p 20). But these small numbers couldn’t carry on indefinitely, especially with the exploration of the West. In June of 1784, Congress asked a few northern states for 700 men to participate in garrisons and offer protection against Indian hostilities. These men were the beginning of the regular Army (Alt & Stone, 1991). The number of soldiers in the Army grew as settlements pushed West.

Soldiers with wives and families were not commonplace in the Post-Revolutionary War garrisons as the pay wasn’t adequate. In 1812 a private made $5 a month, and a sergeant major made $9! By 1854 a sergeant major earned a whopping $20, and a first lieutenant made around $60. This may sound like a lot of money compared to the enlisted ranks, but back in these days, it also took around twenty to thirty years to earn the rank of major (Alt & Stone, 1991). Any soldier who wished to be married had to first seek the approval of their company commander and this practice carried forward even into the twentieth century (Alt & Stone)!

Nonetheless, as time passed, “when the men marched, so did the women” (Alt & Stone, 1991, p. 21). The years of 1780-1850 brought days filled with danger for military wives and their families- tomahawks, typhus, cholera, houses built of logs and mud or living in tents, dugouts, and caves, housemates often included fleas and fire ants! In spite of these dangers, military spouses embraced these opportunities as they lived their lives working in support of our soldiers.

Women such as Elizabeth Reynolds Burt, Frances Anne Mullen Boyd, Alice Kirk Grierson, Helen Grierson Fuller, Frances Mack Roe, Nannie Mills, and Elizabeth Bacon Custer lived in new places such as Fort Apache, AZ; Fort Duchesne, UT; Fort McPherson, NE; Fort Laramie, WY; Fort Douglas, UT; Fort Keogh, MT; Fort Assiniboine, MT; Fort Davis, TX; Fort Elliott, TX; Fort Yates, ND; and even Forts Leavenworth and Huachuca! They had great adventures such as holding balls and dances, visiting with Sioux Chief Sitting Bull, and the opportunity to be the first lady voters in Guthrie, Oklahoma Territory in 1889 (Eales, 1996)!

Coming up next month:
Civil War Wives

In the middle of this exciting period in our country’s history, our country yet again faced a war with two opposing sides: the Civil War. Looking ahead to the new year, we’ll have a glimpse at life for these wives and the wives that follow!

The Brewseum

Brewpub? Speakeasy? Tiki Bar Patio? All good destinations but there is only one place that offers them all at once—and adds WWII Jeeps and planes, Pearl Harbor running on a continuous movie loop, and enough romantic nostalgic swag to make you feel like you're drinking the crafted Pilot Ale in the 1940s. This unique downtown Honolulu pub has collected memorabilia over the years from veterans of our Great War and boasts an amazing collection of items big and small.

But you have to hurry!! Time is short as they are currently expecting to close their doors at the end of this year. This collection of treasures is expected to be digitized but that is a far cry from getting there before they close and seeing it yourself.

Hui Lit Wits!

For all you Hui Lit Wits looking for a good read, here are a few recommendations...

WOMEN'S FICTION/CONTEMPORARY ROMANCE:

Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine: A Novel. Gail Honeyman. Penguin Random House, 2017, 336 pgs. ISBN-13: 978-0735220683

“Move over, Ove (in Fredrik Backman’s A Man Called Ove)—there’s a new curmudgeon to love. . . Walking in Eleanor’s practical black Velcro shoes is delightfully amusing, her prudish observations leavened with a privately puckish humor. But readers will also be drawn in by her tragic backstory, which slowly reveals how she came to be so entirely Eleanor. Witty, charming, and heartwarming, Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine is a remarkable debut about a singular woman. Readers will cheer Eleanor as she confronts her dark past and turns to a brighter future. Feel good without feeling smarmy.” —Booklist (starred review)

SCIENCE FICTION:

Ready Player One. Ernest Cline. Crown Publishers, 2011, 384 pgs. ISBN-13: 978-0307887436

“Ready Player One takes place in the not-so-distant future--the world has turned into a very bleak place, but luckily there is OASIS, a virtual reality world that is a vast online utopia. People can plug into OASIS to play, go to school, earn money, and even meet other people (or at least they can meet their avatars), and for protagonist Wade Watts it certainly beats passing the time in his grim, poverty-stricken real life. Along with millions of other world-wide citizens, Wade dreams of finding three keys left behind by James Halliday, the now-deceased creator of OASIS and the richest man to have ever lived. The keys are rumored to be hidden inside OASIS, and whoever finds them will inherit Halliday’s fortune. But Halliday has not made it easy. And there are real dangers in this virtual world. Stuffed to the gills with action, puzzles, nerdy romance, and 80s nostalgia, this high energy cyber-quest will make geeks everywhere feel like they were separated at birth from author Ernest Cline.” --

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR A HURRICANE?(THE STORM, NOT THE DRINK)

It is currently the middle of hurricane season here in Hawaii. Though landfall of a hurricane on the island is rare, it does happen. Even if it doesn't make landfall, it can still create problems. Be Prepared! The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) recommends you and your family prepare a basic disaster supply kit and have it available throughout the hurricane season...

The following are some recommended items to put in your kit:

- Water, one gallon of water per person per day for at least three days, for drinking and sanitation
- Food, at least a three-day supply of non-perishable food
- Battery-powered or hand crank radio and a NOAA Weather Radio with tone alert and extra batteries for both
- Flashlight and extra batteries
- First aid kit
- Whistle to signal for help
- Moist towelettes, garbage bags and plastic ties for personal sanitation
- Wrench or pliers to turn off utilities
- Manual can opener for food
- Prescription medications and glasses
- Infant formula and Diapers
- Pet food and extra water for your pet
- Cash or traveler's checks and change (no electricity = no ATMs)

The Hui's logo resembles a quilt pattern and incorporates many aspects of the origins of the 25th Infantry Division in Hawaii. At each corner is a taro leaf, representing the birthplace of the Division as well as the foundation of Hawaiian life: family, or `ohana. The lightning bolt within the taro leaves signify the lightning conquests the Division won throughout the Pacific during World War II. The Division patch, comprised of the taro leaf and the lightning bolt, faces out in the four cardinal directions and symbolizes the missions and deployments by the Division today, performed all over the world.

The Pineapple, the universal symbol of hospitality and Aloha, is included between the taro leaves as a reminder of the enduring friendship between the Army and the Hawaiian people. At the center of the pattern is an eight-spoke cogged wheel that represents the U.S. Army, Hawaii's eight major subordinate commands. The spokes surround the hub which is the U.S. Army Hawaii's "H" patch, symbolic of all-encompassing support rendered the Division. It is also the core of our Army community, the foundation of our family support and includes our indispensable Army civilians.

The entire design is surrounded by eight waves, symbolic of our island home. Reverence and respect for the ocean have been part of the Hawaii society dating back to ancient Polynesian voyagers. The eight waves tie together the eight islands that complete the state of Hawaii, just as they tie the 25th Infantry Division and the U.S. Army Hawaii to the Hawaiian people.

This exclusive quilt design has been reproduced in wood engravings, glass products, clothing and a variety of other items that are for sale by the Hui `O Na Wahine. We've had the logo printed, stitched, and etched on many different items, including golf shirts, T-Shirts, aprons, crystal, mugs, tote bags and more. We carry seasonal logo items too.

Hui logo items are available for purchase at monthly Hui luncheons and the Thrift Store. Proceeds from the sale of Hui logo items are dispersed into the community through our Scholarships and Welfare Grants.
